

Nicholas Peter Mongillo, M.D.

Education: 1982, Boston University, B.A. Biology and Italian Studies
1987, St. George's Univ. School of Medicine, Grenada,
West Indies

Postgraduate Training: 1987-88 - Pediatric Intern, Bridgeport Hospital
Bridgeport, CT
1988-90 - Pediatric Resident, Bridgeport Hospital
1989-90 - Chief Resident, Pediatrics, Bridgeport Hospital

Present Position: Private practitioner, Pediatric and Adolescent Medicine

Administrative Activities: Attending Physician, Bridgeport Hospital,
Pediatric AIDS/Immunology Clinic, 1991-present
Coordinating Physician, Pediatric AIDS Clinic,
Stamford Hospital 1998-2004
Town of Stratford Pediatric Health Advisor, 2009-present
Medical Director of Residential Pediatric Patients,
St. Vincent's Special Needs Center, 2011-present

Resident Research Activities: Co-Investigator for Establishment of a Pediatric AIDS Clinic at Bridgeport Hospital, 1990
Pediatric Tuberculosis Case Study, February 1990

Community Activities: Shoreline Adult Soccer League: Player, Head Coach
Boston University Alumni Interviewing Committee
Elementary School Puberty Lecturer, Shelton, CT
2000-present
Assistant Varsity Soccer Coach-Cheshire High School,
Cheshire, CT 1996-present
Stratford Public Schools-High School Career Mentoring
Program, 2011-present
Member of Stratford Pre-school Readiness Committee, 2000-2007

Specialty Certification: American Board of Pediatrics, Certified 2003-2012
Red Cross Provider BCLS, 2011-2013
CT Interscholastic Athletic Conference, Certified Coach, 2007-present

Licensure: State of Connecticut, #030893

Honors and Awards: Cum Laude, St. George's Univ. School of Medicine
George B. Longstreth Award for Humanness and Caring-
Pediatrics, 1988-1989, Bridgeport Hospital
Nominee-Bridgeport Hospital for the Magida Award
(FCMA 1994)
AMA Physician's Recognition Award in Continuing Medical Education with Special Commendation for Self-Directed Learning, 1996, 2003-2009
AAP Prep Education Award, 1999, 2001-2009

Membership
Professional Societies Fellow, the American Academy of Pediatrics, Connecticut
Chapter
American Medical Association

Interests: Sports Medicine
Pediatric Attention Deficit Disorder
Medical Hypnosis and Guided Imagery